

93rd Bomb Group Association/Heritage League
October 2022 Reunion Survey
April 2022

The 93rd Bomb Group Association and Heritage League will hold a joint reunion/convention at the Four Points by Sheraton Boston Newton from October 7th – 11th. The four-day event will feature educational sessions, a Memorabilia room, a visit to the WWII Battle Reenactment at the American Heritage Museum, separate annual business meetings for each organization, a Memorial dinner with group photos, and an half-day touring Boston historical sites. An optional two-day extension focusing on the Revolutionary War with the Boston Tea Party, visits to Lexington and Concord, Old North Church, Paul Revere's House, Washington's Headquarters and the Monument on Bunker Hill is planned. The Extension is separate from the reunion and will involve an additional charge. Our room rate at the Four Points is $183.19 per night including taxes and is available from Oct 4 – 14. Breakfast for two is included in our room rate. A registration fee (to be determined) will include four dinners, and two lunches, transportation, and museum fees. The survey's purpose is to determine overall interest in the event and extension and any concerns or special interests. Please complete the survey and return it as soon as possible.
